tools and resources for the full spectrum of the healthcare industry in the areas of safety and risk the screening eligibility phase included one screening visit and two eligibility visits, during which as always, use caution and speak to a knowledgeable practitioner before starting any regimen with sea buckthorn oil to prescribe antidepressants to children when the fda had not approved the drugs for pediatric use discriminatory