these drugs were originally intended for patients with medical causes; such as conditions involving the testicles or pituitary gland; for low testosterone.

It should be only consumed if men need it and should be taken before 1 - 3 hours before performing sex.

But I really need to connect with others who understand what we go through.

The last day I was up the doctor had told us that tubal surgery, once it works, the tubes stay unblocked.